Mini Medical School II Spring 2015 Course Schedule

March 26
Update on Women’s Health: Contraception, HPV and Pap Smears
David L. Eisenberg, MD
Assistant Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology
Division of Family Planning

Rabies: A Preventable Deadly Disease
Cynthia A. Wichelman, MD
Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine
Course Director, Mini-Medical School

April 2
Behind the Bandages: Cosmetic and Reconstructive Surgery
Keith E. Brandt, MD
William G. Hamm Professor of Surgery
Division of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery

Microsurgery Lab

April 9
Myths and Realities of Psychiatry: Depression - Diagnosis and Treatment
Charles F. Zorumski, MD
Samuel B. Gaze Professor of Psychiatry
Head, Department of Psychiatry

Psychiatric Drugs
Eugene H. Rubin, MD, PhD
Professor of Psychiatry
Vice Chairman for Education
Department of Psychiatry

April 16
Physical Therapy: Optimizing Movement Through the Ages
Suzanne M. Cornbleet, PT, DPT, MA
Associate Professor of Physical Therapy

PT Lab: Screening For and Improving Common Posture and Movement Faults
Taught by Physical Therapy faculty and doctoral students

April 22 & 23 (6:30-9:30pm)
(Wednesday and Thursday)
CPR and AED Certification
Physical Examination and Anatomy Lab
Cynthia A. Wichelman, MD
Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine
Course Director, Mini-Medical School

*Taught in conjunction with Washington University School of Medicine medical students and Department of Medicine faculty and residents.
Note: These sessions meet from 6:30-9:30 p.m. Both topics will be offered each night.
Students will complete one of the topics on Wednesday and the other on Thursday.

April 30
Advances in Urology from Male Impotence to Prostate Cancer
Arnold D. Bullock, MD
Alan A. and Edith L. Wolff Distinguished Professor of Surgery, Division of Urologic Surgery

Human Hardware: Hip & Knee Replacement
Ryan M. Nunley, MD
Associate Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery
Division of Joint Preservation and Replacement

May 7
Someone You Love, The HPV Epidemic Movie and Discussion
Gregory A. Storch, MD
Ruth L. Siteman Professor of Pediatrics
Division of Pediatric Infectious Disease

May 14
Breast Cancer Diagnosis and Treatment with patient presentation
Michael J. Naughton, MD
Assistant Professor of Medicine
Division of Medical Oncology

Graduation and Reception