

Mini Medical School II Spring 2017 Course Schedule

March 23

Best Practices in Sexual Health: Updates on Contraception, Cervical Cancer Screening and Prevention

David L. Eisenberg, MD
*Associate Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology
Division of Family Planning*

The Keys to Longevity: Nutrition, Exercise and Cognitive Training

Luigi Fontana, MD, PhD
*Professor of Medicine
Division of Geriatrics and Nutritional Science
Co-Director of Longevity Research Program*

March 30

Myths and Realities of Psychiatry Depression - Diagnosis and Treatment

Charles F. Zorumski, MD
*Samuel B. Guze Professor of Psychiatry
Head, Department of Psychiatry*

Psychiatric Drugs

Eugene H. Rubin, MD, PhD
*Professor of Psychiatry
Vice Chairman for Education
Department of Psychiatry*

Panel Discussion

April 6

Advances in Urology from BPH to Erectile Dysfunction

Arnold D. Bullock, MD
*Alan A. and Edith L. Wolff Distinguished
Professor of Surgery
Division of Urologic Surgery*

Breast Cancer Diagnosis and Treatment, with patient presentation

Michael J. Naughton, MD
*Associate Professor Medicine
Division of Medical Oncology*

April 13

Flaps R Us: Reconstructive Plastic Surgery

Keith E. Brandt, MD
*William G. Hamm Professor of Surgery
Division of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery
Executive Director, American Board of Plastic Surgery*

Microsurgery Lab

April 20

Physical Therapy:

Optimizing Movement Through the Ages
Suzanne M. Cornbleet, PT, DPT, MA
Associate Professor of Physical Therapy

PT Lab: Screening For and Improving
Common Posture and Movement Faults

Taught by Physical Therapy faculty and doctoral students

April 26 & 27 (6:30-9:30pm)

(Wednesday and Thursday)

CPR and AED Certification

Physical Examination and Anatomy Lab

Cynthia A. Wichelman, MD
*Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine
Course Director, Mini-Medical School*

Taught in conjunction with Washington University School of Medicine medical students and Department of Medicine faculty and residents. Note: These sessions meet from 6:30-9:30pm. Both topics will be offered each night. Students will complete one of the topics on Wednesday and the other on Thursday. Plan to attend both evenings to receive your certification.

May 4

Human Hardware:

Hip & Knee Replacement

Ryan M. Nunley, MD
*Associate Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery
Division of Joint Preservation and Replacement*

A Comfortable Death,
Changing the Way We Die

Patrick White, MD
*Assistant Professor of Medicine
Chief Medical Officer of Wings, BJC Hospice and Palliative Care*

Graduation and Reception